ROSE POWER

I've always wanted to see for myself if Pete Rose really does smell like a man especially after a game. That shot of him squeezing his crotch and looking bad-assed (IN PASSING, Issue 29) was enough to get me to shell-out for a sub-

A WET, DEVOTED FAN

I have never discovered a gay magazine, before picking up my first issue of Drummer, that kept my inner fantasies as well as my cock hot wild and hard longing for more. It was your issue 17. Since then I have been a devoted fan of Drummer, I even stood in the rain to wait for the delivery truck to unload so I could do the same, I purchased every issue up to 26, omitting one issue 20 which new speed to arrive in New York City.

Then on February 28th '79 my friend
R.M., by the way who is a very hot man and should be pictured in your magazine, got me a subscription to Drummer. Then finally the last week in April I received my virgin issue 27 which I had two weeks before purchased.

Now I'm acting like a Tiger with two heads who can't shit. When the HELL will I get my next issue? Why is it on the stands before it is in my mail box?

OPEN WIDE FUCKER!

As a long-time reader of Drummer and an "m," I get turned on by your magazine, A recent article hit one of my trips — medical exams. The article showed a back-room in S.F. — in a corner was a medical exam table. I imagined myself nude on that table, strapped on my back w/legs fastened in the stirrups — wide-open for anything — and everything.

Several requests. How about a guy being stripped, then strapped on a medical exam table, then getting cock/ball/ass exam and workover? Also, I am into shaving. How about a good series on a guy going to a barber and getting a full shave — everything including the head.

Finally, I am into c/b punishments – especially the balls. I would like photos or articles dealing w/NEW equipment or methods of c/b punishment, especially on the balls.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Just want to thank you for getting my subscription straightened out. The last few months have really been super especially the Mr. Benson story. Hope to see something in next few editions about short hair and shaving.

Keep up the good work.

It's the final act of ownership. It comes when one man has so completely taken over another that he has the freedom to act on whim or plan and alter the body being offered to him.

It is the final act of submission. It happens when a bottom is willing to be shorn of the animal signs of his masculinity; the very part of his body that advertised his manhood.

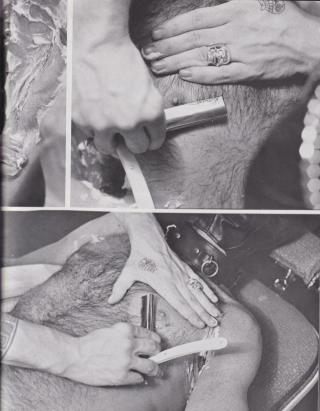

It produces a final vulnerability. Those lew strands of hair on your ass and your cock and balls are protection: protection from forces you can't control. When they're gone, you are left bared to the sight of any passing man. It is the final signal of what you want.

It is the final signal of what you want. The hand going down your jeans in a backroom bar and finding nothing but smooth skin will know what you are and why you're there. The mean looking stud in the baths is going to look at your

He'll say, "I want to shave your whole body," and you'll have to make a decision. Are you ready for it all? But you've probably been working up to it. And it'll be a new experience. You're always

The long sharp edge of the razor makes its longest runs up your stomach. The few hairs speckling your torso are caught up in the smooth flow of the crotch and your ass. There's more foam. And he makes shorter, more frequent scrapes at your lower belly. The hair is tugging again now that it's become thick one more. You should be supply to the content of the humiliation. It is noted this part of the humiliation.

Then he stretches out your cock. You never realized just how much hair was there. It had always seemed to be a part of the rest of your crotch bush. But, he's stretched it out its full length and you see the long shafts growing out of your prick. You suck in your breath the young the y

It had been humiliating when he had taken the hair from your crotch; it had been painful when he had manhandled your balls; but the feel of the steel against your hole is the most startling sensation yet. You suck in air as he makes minute moves of the razor against the most sensitive nerve endings of your body. You're sweating even more.

Finally, after a few long strokes on the mounds of your ass to catch any strays, he's finished. He's oblivious to your emotions. All he wants to do is stand back and drink in the vision of his handiwork: your naked, shaved body. His body.

You think about the hair on your arms and legs. Maybe, maybe he'll leave it. But he won't. It's going to go too. But, first, that naked puckered flesh knob of your ass is sticking out at him. He'll have to wait to finish the whole job. Not with that little circle of purple flesh luring him on. You hear the zipper and you try to relax your hole, tense from the sensations of the metal scraping against it.

His wide prick is pressing against you, and there's nothing left to stop it. There's nothing left to hold him back as he assults your sphincter muscles. He enters hard, the smooth skin is almost producing its own lubricant, You lift up your haunches and meet him — the man who shaved your body.

If you're lucky he'll keep you shaved - or someone will. If you're not, it'll grow in. The in-between period is going

And now, a few words from the artist: My age; in my thirties. — Cancer. Started to draw purely as a hobby during my school days. It was then a means of concentration, getting hot, turning-on with my fantaises. This is still an important factor today. I never had any art schooling. I picked it all up by experience. It isn't my profession either, I have a full-time job that's got nothing to do with drawing.

I became interested in the leather scene in the early 70s, a date which concleded with the appearance of my first interesting drawings. My interest in interesting drawings. My interest in interesting drawings. My interest in the state of the state

Most of my drawings are done in a combination of ink and pencil, sometimes colour pencil. Often I start a drawing without any real plan, and develop it gradually. People often ask how long it takes to finish a drawing: let me assure you I put hours and hours mit to it, and so does every artist. It may take a week or more to complete a single drawing.

I do not work minded awaying usually not even from photographs. A perfect likeness is not my ideal a awaying my agnation-value" into a awaying my dawings are a starting point for my drawings are a starting point for frantasy. I don't always show the full action, often my characters are "about to plug in and out".

I suppose my artwork has a distinctive European flavour. I don't draw the typical American props just because they would commercialize my drawing. I draw the types that I like, 50 you see maybe more blond long-haired guys than you would like. One reason also is hat my work is not commissioned. I just do what I like, then ask if anyone les likes it.

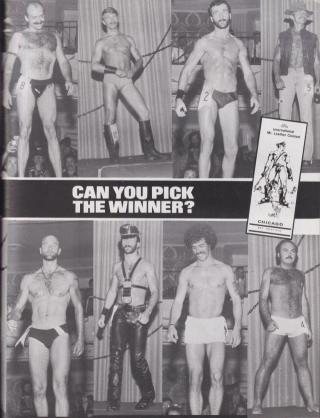

If you do, you may soon have a chance to see more of it at my one-man show. Fey-Way in San Francisco will be the place.

Of course, I had been to the Mineshaft before, but only once or twice. This was the heaviest leather bar in New York, the source of half the gossip of my old set of acquaintances.
"You know what he did at the Mineshaft last night?" That was the normal prelude to a bar dish among the fluff queens. Tonight, I walked with a purpose up the stairs to the second floor entrance to be tested by Mr. Benson.

A week had dragged by since last I had seen him. I called Monday to tell him my decision about the future, I told him clearly, even calmly, that I was offering myself as his slave that I wanted to take the test he had prescribed to see if I could be good enough, obedient enough, sexy enough to pass his inspection. His response was hard and pointed. He had spent plenty of time setting his standards. There were things up with which Mr. Benson would not put!

They included my job. He explained carefully that he had the house. He gave me an option that I accepted: I wouldn't need the job if I went to live with him: I would have to trust him to provide for me. He suggested I take a week's vacation. If I went to live with Mr. Benson, it wouldn't matter if I returned, but the week would be a kind of second test. If I failed, I could leave his house and go back to my 9-5 ritual humiliation-for-pay.

I would also have to give up the apartment and my few goodies from Bloomies, Mr. Benson thought I had little

So, I would have two tests: this Saturday night, and then a whole week, after which I would have to decide again if I was ready to make a commitment so intense that it would leave no

The week of fantasy leading up to the climbing of these stairs bounced me through many conflicting thoughts about my trial. I looked forward to it sexually. I wanted to taste the piss flowing through Mr. Benson's long sensuous cock; I wanted to lick his good tasting pit sweat; I wanted to feel his fist glide up my ass again. But there was also fear. The last weekend had been the heaviest S&M trip I had ever endured What if I couldn't take any more? What if I had only gone man? What if the pain overtook the pleasure and I lost it? Doubts darted through my mind as I handed the Mineshaft bouncer the entrance fee and saw him look over my clothes.

Leased past him into the first room: the har of the Mineshaft The early crowd had begun to line the walls of the room. Leather, denim, and skin alternated in the rows of bodies out. for early display, I had my orders, I went to the coat check and began my obedience number, just as Mr. Benson had ordered me.

The coat check at the Mineshaft is different than any other bar's in New York. They hardly limit themselves to customers' jackets. The man behind the counter hardly blinked as I stripped off my jacket, then my pants, my shirt, and, finally, even my sneakers

I think that the sneakers were the part that had bothered me the most. The Mineshaft was not a place where I felt like I wanted to have naked contact with the floor in any way. the orders had been explicit; at midnight I was to be standing in front of the fake wooden rail fence in the front bar, and I was to be wearing only a jockstrap. Waiting for Mr. Benson.

The idea of the lockstrap didn't produce a second glance in a place so used to them; I mean a sign on the wall said that the Jockstrap League of America met here once a month, A couple cowbovs admired what they called my "flat golden nip-"Indian" liked my body with its rounded pecs. One ples," An particularly mean looking state trooper started to come over. but a subtle shaking of my head staved him off. I leaned back against the fence and watched the game being played on the pool table: it was not pool.

The clock over the bar said that I had fifteen minutes to countdown, I debated a beer. I had been smart enough to put waiting for a climax to a week of solitude with my thoughts fears, and fantasies. I went over and got a Bud, ignoring the comments and the looks as I leaned my bare ass over the counter to place my order. I took the good tasting suds back over to the fence, and put a foot up on the first rung.

Waiting for Mr. Benson, I kept wondering what form the test would take? Why the Mineshaft? There was only one answer to that question, Mr. Benson intended to make this test a public event. I had realized that from the beginning. My stomach felt light as I thought about all these eyes watching me now, and what they would be seeing when Mr. Benson arrived, I remembered my body sprawled on the floor, sucking his toes, licking his feet, his instep crushing down on my open jaws. Would I be doing that, here, tonight? With his boots? Which pair? What kind? Would I be polishing his boots with my tongue while he lashed at me with a belt? A riding crop? A whip?

I remembered the piss drinking, its golden flow down my throat, Would Mr. Benson repeat that here in the Mineshaft? Right in the front room? With all these people watching me gulp down his manwater?

I remembered the other deeper and darker rooms in the joint. Through that corridor was the room with the sling. A black leather sheath suspended from the ceiling. I had seen men climb up and in and open their asses to some stud standing greasy-fisted in front of them, widening the groove of their pain-fucking cheeks, forcing their limbs into the body. Was Mr Benson going to do that to me in front of all these men? Would he let them pinch and tug at my tits while he worked his fist in and out of my butt? Would he make me suck their alien cocks?

Beyond that was a dark room, the least lit in the place, where the game was cock sucking. Was Mr. Benson going to take me in there? Would I end up spending the whole evening licking these men's pricks, drinking their cum? Giving them all the pleasure they wanted?

And downstairs: another dark room with walls slippery with ooze, Was Mr. Benson going to take me downstairs into that room and add my screams of pain to all the echoes of past beatings that had taken place there? Would they all gather around and watch him cut my backskin with deep lashes from a coiled leather snake?

The second room had a bathtub in the center, Was Mr. Benson going to put me in it? Tied? Was he going to let all their gallons of urine? Would he pull me out of the place soaked, my hair carrying the stench of aggressive men?

Or the last room - another bar - would Mr. Benson drag me into the dim light on the stage in that last room? Would he auction me off to the highest bidder? Or the biggest cock?

Force me to do his bidding with whatever man, god or troll, climbed up on the stage with me?

The pouch of my lock strained against my pulsing dick as I cataloged the possible adventures. I should have known that Mr. Benson would have done none of them. After five years 1 know now that Mr. Benson is too much of an elitist to let me be used and abused by anyone. But, then, there are his friends, and I was about to learn how much Mr. Benson valued friend-

The crowd at the Mineshaft must be the most jaded in New York. There is almost nothing that they haven't seen take place right there in those six rooms and the two toilets. Every trip from rubber to wingtip shoes had been celebrated in its walls, but still there was a sudden quiet when The Presence came into the room, I hadn't been paying attention, I was too far gone into the fantasies of my evening to see It coming, but I had heard the silence. I looked up and saw him standing there, directly in front of me.

The black doorman from that first night, He was wearing a very different type of uniform now then last week. He had on a black motorcycle cap. A tan uniform shirt with a black belt stretched across his chest. Then black leather britches, shiny with care, and exaggerated by a strip of white leather down each thigh. I don't know if I had ever appreciated his emmensity before. His body towered over me, even higher than Mr. Benson; but he had none of Mr. Benson's propertoned lines, only menacing bulk in front of my face.

'Are you ready for Mr. Benson, boy?"

I was speechless except for a nod: YES! He reached up and attached a dog collar to my neck; its stiff leather felt comfortably uncomfortable from the start joined my wrists behind my back. Then he pulled sharply on the leash and led me out down the stairs and into the waiting car. He just led me, naked and barefoot into the New York winter night No one in the bar dared say anything. They correctly assumed that I went willingly. And I was willing, but scared shitless. He shoved me onto the floor of the back seat of the new Mercedes, locked the door, strode to the front, and folded his bulk into the driver's seat. We sped off, driving, I don't know where, through the Village streets. It only took a few minutes actually, until he stopped and dragged my shivering bod out into the middle of a warehouse district I couldn't recognize, South of Canal Street? North of Chelsea? Who

He led me into one of the warehouse buildings through a door marked only with the smallest of signs "The Topmen. I was suddenly right under a lightbulb. The black man chuckled and announced my arrival, "Mr. Benson, your new

As I gratefully warmed up in the well-heated room, and adjusted my eyes to the third-degree glare, I found seven men lounging around on old furniture, all holding beer cans, all dressed in the same black-and-tan leather outfits as my captor.

The best of them was Mr. Benson.

I was going to see the interior of this room often; I would end up here in Mr. Benson's club house many more nights than I could have predicted. This was where Mr. Benson liked to pass his rare social hours. There are seldom guests in the penthouse, and I had been correct when I had assumed that the visit to a har where he had met me was a tactic Mr. Benson, and the other Topmen, liked to spend their time together here in this ancient warehouse, far from the ears and cares of intruding, curious people,

Mr. Benson actually smiled as I looked at him across the room. I used to mistake actions like smiles from Mr. Benson to be things like welcomes. That was no welcome. Tom, the doorman, had unthinkingly begun a new game. Mr. Benson played it out. He strode over to me and put a hand on my neck; turning to the other Topmen, he said, "A pet, gentlemen. My new pet!" They laughed uproariously.

"I had thought to introduce you to my new slave; but I think Tom is right. It's more accurate to think of this fine specimen of humanus slavus as a pet, one who, I am sure, will bring me many hours of pleasure and companionship.

His little speech was delivered with a great dramatic flair. The audience responded appropriately by applauding the kind of pet is this?"

"Mr. Benson," one called out over the applause, "What kind of pet is this?"

I looked up at the speaker, easily the most handsome of the group: blond, blue eyed, clean shaven with a squared frame that provided a fully muscled body. Yet, the swastika on his armband — the only extra decoration any of them wore gave rise to the greatest reaction of fear.

"A pig, Benson, that's what he is, a pig!" The second one to contribute piped in; he was just as easily the least attractive; his Hindenberg body bulged incredulously against the smart uniform that added to the others' military-sharp appearance.

"In that case, Porytko, he certainly would be willing to suck even your cock." Mr. Benson tugged hard on my leash and pulled me over to stand in front of the overweight giant. As I came closer, I realized that he wasn't really ugly. He had a different look: a Slavic bluntness that became macho goodlooking when it was more closely inspected. I was learning that masculine beauty was lots more than Hollywood Handsome! his fat uncut cock out of his pants. Its rigid hardness stuck straight in the air. Mr. Benson leaned down on my neck as the gargantuan Polack started his baiting call, "Come on, sooee come on little piggy, show us how much you can eat." The crowd called out for more. I went to my knees and took the fat Polish sausage, its girth stretching the corners of my throat, and its fleshy length striking the back of my mouth. The stranger pulled on my ears and shoved his whole slavic prick into me, forcing me to gag with almost every stroke. My only luck that night was his exhibitionistic horniness at the idea of of salty cum down my gullet, Intense, in record time.

"Now, Porytko, who's the pig!" Mr. Benson exclaimed.

He watched me gulping down the hot ooze.

"Mr. Benson!" A squatly built bearded man, sitting next to the pole, siad: "I think the pig looks more like a cat, myself."

"Yeah, a cat!" The men toyed with me. With a heightening intensity, Mr. Benson asked the group, "And what is going to prove him a cat?"

"Well, Mr. Benson, I know that mine has a tongue that won't stop going. Licks me everytime it feels good."

Mr. Benson jerked my neck up off the Polish cock, the sharp tug on the stiff collar forcing my face to look up into his. "Well, asshole, why aren't you licking me?" The humble as Mark's cat likes him?"

I was terrified by this new game. There was none of the quiet masterfulness I had seen in Mr. Benson before. None of the underflow of caring strength that had attacted me in the beginning. This was pure cruelty, I thought then. These men, their uniforms, ganging up on me. But the fear made me rub my face directly in Mr. Benson's crotch and start to lick at the bulge! I knew was there. I wasn't eoing to fail! Neither him.

"Mr. Benson," I couldn't see which one was speaking now,
"My cat does more than lick, the poor thing's forever drinking out of a tollet bowl." That raised every man's high spirits.
Mr. Benson played off the perfect new cue. He got me up onto struggled to keep up with the figure moving through applause to a doorway across the room.

Luckily, the doorman's body broke my fall, and his strong arm helped me on the way as I went into the bathroom behind Mr. Benson. I was surprised when the lights went on and I say the tollet I, twis large — much too large for the clubbouse; as we the collet I, twis large — much too large for the clubbouse; as we have the collet I was to see a lot more of this room in the future. My face entered the cold water while the chunk of a man above me was still pissing his hard out. He soaked my hair, piss ran down the sides of my face and into my mouth. They ordered me from above to slury up the tollet water. The others, or at least some of them, joined in and within seconds, streams of hot pips flowed down my back into the bowl. The different colors of their piss mixing into the tollet bowl. My bowl now! I was not going to fail so early! I was going to show them. I was going to show Mr. Berson. I not solve the properties of the properties of the properties of would have fainted at the thought of the stinking fluids, but now! I sought them out. My tongue lapped the different manly nobility at the bottom.

When he finally pulled up on the leash, I was bloated. The stink of all the men filled my nose. The slurping had left trails of water and piss streaking down my chest, drenching my elastic jockstrap.

There was a quieter sense to the laughter as they put their cocks back into the uniform pants. A cat? Okay, a cat! I remembered the first story and went back with my mouth to Mr. Benson's crotch, pulling my tongue over the slick, leather of his uniform, burying my nose in the full curve of his flesh,

His hand petted the back of my head. "Hey, Mr. Benson."

"Now, what?" Mr. Benson was less raucous as he continued to pet me.

"Well, Mr. Benson, since this is sort of a universal kind of pet, why don't you show him? You know, like at those Madison Square Garden fancy dog shows?" Lauetter.

Without further words, Mr. Benson pulled up on the leash and led me back into the first room. The doorman pulled out a stand; it was the size of a small dining table. "Up, boy!" Mr. Benson slammed his fit on its surface.

I climbed on and knelt up on my knees. Mr. Benson came to the side of the table as the group returned to their seats in obvious anticipation of this next primal act. Mr. Berson picked up some of his showmanship again, "Sentlemen, this fine specimen is blue-ribbon without doubt." He reached over and ran a hard hand down my side, emphasizing each point in his monolog. "Notice the smooth lines, the full chest, slimming into a tight waist, and filling out again into fine, rounded tight." Missiles greeted his hand's progress around to my ass.

"Yeah, but Mr. Benson." It was the sturdy dark man again. "When you have an animal that has lines as fine as those, well, you would be doing something to bring them out. You know, they shouldn't be covered with all that unnatural cloth.

Mr. Benson agreed and jerked down my jock to expose my half-hardon and my halls, pulled up with fear and excitement. A low moan of approval. Mr. Benson put up his hand to caim their dripping lust. "Now, of course, our good brother here is correct, there should be nothing to interfere with such obliquisty chamionshin guildise."

"But, Mr. Benson, he has hair.

"Never fear! You should certainly know that hair never lasts long in my household." New laughter clued me that the last's remark was a vow to Mr. Benson's own special tastes.

DRUMMER 27

I barely heard the comments on the excellence of the job being done by Mr. Benson. The new sight gripped me with fear. Could I with said that! Would I be able to take it?! should have known that I would have no choice.

I have never found out if Mr, Benson or the others had noticed my noticing, or whether it was really planned that they would grab me. From beyond my sight, their hands reached out and took hold of my ankles and them my wrists. They pulled without questions; they stretched my body must have sat on the wast cutting into its edge. Two of them must have sat on the wast cutting into its edge. Two of them on my legs. Two others I could see as they their day arms sharply against the corners of the table.

snarply against the corners of the top.

I could see Mr. Benson as he came back around the table, this time walking past me and over to the corner where he bent down to pick up the handle that rested over the edge of the brasier, its wood end protected from the hot coals that had turned the metal edge red with heat.

There was no circus hint in Mr. Benson's voice now, "Men, this slave is mine. He's come here of his own will. He's agreed to be in my service. These games have been fun, but it's time we got down to the business of establishing ownership." He had walked around to the back of me. Cold sweat ran down my forehead. My guts wrenched. I turned my face over and opened my mouth to bite my arm. I would not screen.

Mr. Benson held the branding iron for all to see. Then he lowered it below and behind my line of sight.

My butt sizzled. I smalled my body cooking, like so much meat. Tears streamed out of my years, size of appreciation came from the men around me. I house he got a form from the tush of pain that fore through me, reaching out from my right buttock, now, forever, marked by Mr. Bersson. They let go of me almost as soon as the act was over. I was so shocked with the glowing hurt, I stood there, bent over the tuble, grasping is toged even after they had released my

A cool hand went over my as, smoothing a sale of some kind, but shocking my skin over the wound. The sudden new wave of sensation jerked me upright. The black doorman was beside me, the strange medicine sending its smell into my nose. The sobs still heaved in my chest from my cries. I tried to hold them back, to regain myself. "Come here, boy, you

I closed my eyes in a sense close to desperation.

What more? What more could be want?

The fire burned in my shank as I faced him.

There it was. The Source, Mr. Benson's hard cock out, There it was. The Source, Mr. Benson's hard cock out, celebrating my pain and marking. His heavy balls hung down over the snaps of his leather codpiece. I went over to him, whiching at every movement of my butt, dragging my right leg to try to keep it stiff, but giving up when I reached him and swallowing to ready myself for the quick rage of pain as I knell and pravefully took his beautiful cock in my mouth.

I knelt in communion with Mr. Benson like a religious fanatic who had journeyed to a shrine. My week of abstinence, my humiliation, my trial, all for this gorgeous manstick. This godstick. These ripe and full nuts hanging beneath my chin. Went mad with desire for his cock. Oblivious to my brainded butt, I chowed down on the pole in front of me.

Mr. Benson's cock.

His fabled virility poked down my throat, I worked my head and neck to feel his smooth surface against my inside.

Before long, his shaft began to swell with cum. The veins pushed against the outer layer of skin. I gulped further down at the early warning and when he shot, the precious juice pistoled straight into me, hardly any of it even into my mouth, the taste of this man—I can say it now—went straight to my soul!

Five years ago all that happened. I have never been allowed to grow back my manhair. The scar on my buttock, of course, has cured to a fine mark, But, now, the sensation of that night seems so far away that I think it more pride than pain because it is Mr. Benson's mark on me:

a large B in a simple circle.

The night, that first night, was not over. But the branding brought a climax to my center-tage performance. Tom took me over to the doorway of the toilet when Mr. Benson's cock cuffs and pouher me. The gromous black reapplied my hand-cuffs and pouher me. The gromous black reapplied my hand-cuffs and pouher me. The grown black reapplied my hand pain in my buttocks. The last joke of the evening came from pain in my buttocks. The last joke of the evening came from he Polack, Poryto, who put a rough lettered sign around my nearly "Tollet." The Topmen went back to their drinking and sex just the except when they took the sign literally.

I drank more piss that night than I had imagined deling in yn fantaise at the Mineshatt. The sharp taste burnt in my mouth, relieved only by each new load that one of the club members brought over to me as the great amounts of beer flushed out his system. Twice, my own water flowed unwatch these men in a groups the first time that I was able to watch these men in a group with the size of the size of the figure out who was who and what was poing on, and trying to froget the brand that still sent shock waves through my body everytime I moved.

Tom, the black doorman, was obviously an attendant to Mr. Benson. Some sort of second lieutenant! There is no doubt from the way he acted that his presence was because of my new master. His huge size and the terror he would throw in the eyes of anyone who saw his thickly sculptured African face was betrayed by the care he gave Mr, Benson's needs. and even mine. Tom was after all, the man who applied the salve to my wound that night.

If Tom were a stereotype in any way, the other black in the group was the opposite. From the conversation, even through my pain, I could tell that Brendan was a cop, I was startled by the thought of his tall stature in a deep blue uniform and was able to spend a lot of time wondering if it would look any better buttoned and zipped and strapped into the outift of New York's finest than it did in the Topmen's uni-

Brendan talked with a drawl that was almost Southern; probably, at some point it was, but its edge was cut with an academic ability that showed itself whenever he and Mr. Benson talked. They were obviously the most intelligent of the group, and they enjoyed that intelligence greatly. Often, it would seem that they would have to check their conversation or risk leaving the others, more brawn than brains, behind

More often, Porytko, the Pole, would stop them before they had a chance to get too far. They never seemed to mind the good-natured hulk breaking in with a joke that too often seemed funny only to him. The big guy's deep laugh would fill the room often with self-congratulatory guffaws. He was easily the least sinister of the group. But he could spit a hawker over twenty feet right on target!

The most sinister, by far, was the German they called Hans. The others used my mouth to piss in so casually that they just wanted to save themselves the walk into the toilet behind me. But, when Hans came over, he would reach down and take my tits between his fingernails. His vise-grip squeeze tortured my smooth brown nipples. My gasps of pain he muf-fled in the heavy uncut cock he shoved in my mouth; but, once, Mr. Benson stopped him with a sharp call when he was reaching down to scratch at my fresh brand, I had to prepare myself everytime that Hans stood to approach me, and let my tender nipples ready for the sharp action he sadistically

Mark, the man who had talked about the cat, was the most self-conscious of all, I thought. His attitude seemed a little too studied as he pulled up his belt everytime he approached me. His scowl seemed more put-on than the natural curl of the lip that Hans showed. And he seemed to have the least to say to the rest of the group. He seemed to want almost to change places with me

The two most talkative, really, and the two most unlikely and the two who would have driven my old bar friends crazy with lust - turned out to be lovers. They were two matched Italians, both well over six-feet tall; both heavychested, hair pouring up over their collars, both rich with sweet smelling piss and tasty cocks. Their dark black mous-taches were full and regulation clipped on their olive faces. And the completion of the fantasy for all to acknowledge came out when they talked of the construction company they jointly owned, and the weights they jointly worked out with. Frank and Sal were strange partners, their demeanor was so obviously masculine and their conversation with the other men on sex showed they were both Topmen, but their manly affection for one another was somehow a natural part of their being together. I remember that that night I would think about being between them, their two sets of thick muscular thighs locked around me.

They were all in that group. I'd learn later that there were other bottoms that they owned. Some, though, like Mark, were loners; or like Hans, could never have expected anyone to stay around that long, Frank and Sal had little room left in their relationship for a third person to stay. And only Mr. Benson and Brendan had the strength to rule any one person as fully as Mr. Benson would rule me for the next five years. The beer and the smoke got to them. My exhausted body lay over in the corner, but the agonies I had endured must have turned them on. The evening was drawing to a close as I watched an early morning light come in over the crack in the doorway; the Topmen would come in and take their pleasure all, except thankfully, Hans,

Porytko, whose cum had already shot in me, was first and again the easiest as his thick cock shoved quickly back down in my throat again. Brendan the cop was the biggest. At least in that department he was still a stereotype. I was shocked when his huge tool had first been pulled out to piss up my ass. And, I was delighted to take on the task of trying to accommodate the member when he brought it again swollen with lust over to me. This time, my mouth. I chewed on his long, black foreskin as it passed through my teeth that first time. He had loved it. I marveled at the pinkness of the front of his prick when I had first seen it peek out from under the folds; the contrast was sharp against the dark shaftskin.

The sexiest, almost tender encounter, was when Frank and Sal came over together and used my face as a hole to fuck while they made out over me. Their sloppy kisses and hard "Do it, man" slaps left me with a raging hardon after first one, then the other, had shot into me, Mark, Mark strode over and drove into my mouth, He liked to talk dirty. His monolog describing my piss-drenched and cum-saturated body seemed more for his own turn-on than for me to even hear. And Tom came over almost perfunctorily. He was almost chuckling as he stuck his stick in my bruised and bleeding mouth. Hans glowered from where he sat. Was he angry that Mr Benson had stopped him from inflicting too much pain on me? Had Mr. Benson stopped him from going over this last time to join everyone else in climaxing the evening? Whatever, he left abruptly, saving he was off to the Mineshaft to see if there

The others took this as their cue and got up to leave. They departed one by one leaving the mess of beer cans and filled ashtrays, I remember I used to wonder who had the job of cleaning up. I wondered who had ever assembled this extraordinary group of Manhattan men. But the thoughts didn't go far. As soon as they had left me alone and stopped the continual flow of piss and cum into me, I had given in to a burden of fatigue and slumped down, the only thing even slowing my sliding into sleep immediately being the pain as my raw wound hit the floor. But I did sleep. Or pass out,

I didn't wake until we were standing in the elevator of Mr Benson's apartment. Though I wasn't standing I was in Tom's arms. The two faces smiling down at me, ignoring my stench. Even with the draperies nearly closed, the sun streaked into Mr. Benson's apartment. I had almost no sense of time

A sudden start! I understood that after only one night, this With the least possible aid from me, Tom lowered me into a warm and soothing bath. He dried my weak body and put on more of his strange smelling salve, covering it with a gauze bandage. The collar had left my neck stiff, the skin red from its rubbing. I chafed my wrists that showed deep red gashes where the steel handcuffs had bruised me down to the bone.

Mr. Benson played for real

When my nude, nearly hairless body was dried, Tom took me into the living room. There, Mr. Benson waited. He had drunk and smoked noticeably less than the rest of the group. Now he sat in his favorite chair, stripped down to his leather britches, sipping an amber fluid out of a brandy glass. He smiled a welcome to the two of us, and waved as Tom deposited me and went wordlessly on his way. I sank onto the floor, sprawling once again at his feet, desperately tired and hoping he wouldn't want more from me tonight "Well, boy, that wasn't really a test. I was sure you had firmly made up your mind." He paused while he sipped. "We'll consider tonight a beginning to your training,

I could barely get the words out. Then, Mr. Benson, the tyrant of this night of nights. reached down and himself gathered my body into his arms. I wrapped one of my own arms around his shoulders and put my head against his chest.

"Boy. I looked up.

Mr. Benson bent his neck down and softly, but firmly, kissed my bruised lips. That was all I remembered that night. When I woke up in ny sleeping bag the next morning, I could only hope that his affection would be repeated. Tough and tender, the kiss from Mr. Benson made me feel proud to be a man valued by another man,

LIBRA S: (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Are you beginning to feel that you need

PISCES M: The only thing your Master will give you for Labor Day is labor pains from too much impregnation!

ARIES S: (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Take your harem of sadism-loving sickies out for a pre-autumn VD check-up. A sick slave is like a vibrator without batteries.

ARIES M: Start autumn off on a new foot. Perform a sex change on yourself. Use lots of amyl nitrite as an anesthetic.

PRISON PUNK

BY FRANK O'ROURKE/Part Five

There were two more sessions with the mystery man, Un like the first experience the guy first used my mouth and discovered that he had a long and fat cock. Searching the knob of his cock with my tongue told me that he was uncut. He never face fucked me and I almost felt that he pright be apologizing for making use of my body It was on his last visit that he drove his cock up my ass. He stroked my cock as he fucked me with short strokes, it was only while he came close to coming that the driving cock became more forceful. As his cock grew in my ass, prepara-tory to coming, my ass gripped the shaft with force. As he came he let out a cry and I knew who my assailant was Shortly after this encounter. Long was transferred to San Quentin as a sergeant. I never mentioned to my Master that I knew who the mysterious trick had been The relationship between Jerry and me through the next-The relationship between Jerry and the priority the next-couple of years assumed a new differency on we became lovers. The Master/slave roles did not change, but I know that he loved me, even though he never really said It. My body was still available to any guy who had the price for it.

When Jerry appeared before the April parole board, he was tion Center in order to facilitate his transition from a maximum security institution to the streets, since the camp was

I had expected that he would be more careful of our having sex since if we got caught fucking he might lose his parolo date. The opposite became true. He didn't seem to have enough of me. His cock was constantly either in my ass or in my mouth. One thing changed, he stopped selling my body. The night before he was transferred, he really threw a royal fuck into me. After we had cleaned up, he lay back on my bunk while I brewed some coffee for us. "You know, Jim, I could have gotten a good price for you.

There were a lot of dudes who wanted your ass, but I decided to let you make up your mind what you wanted to do

Yes, sir," I murmured You know a lot of guys in here get institutionalized. They just ean't make it on the streets and I don't want that to happen to you. You've been a good slave to me, but I want you to be able to kick back and decide what you want to do with your life. You can't do that when someone owns you. He paused a moment. Anybow there isn't anybody here who i figure could handle you properly. I don't want to see you

"Thank you, sir "I'm going back to San Francisco when I get out. You can usually find me at the Brig on Friday and Saturday nights, If you're interested I'd like to see you."

I handed him his coffee and he moved aside to let me sit next to him. We sipped our coffee and exchanged/small talk lerry was never lable to keep his hands off of me and he stroked my naked thigh as he talked. I hadn't gotten off when he fucked me so my cock got rigid, pleading for reflet which I knew it wouldn't get.

lerry got up and took a leak and told me to stretch out on brook 1 finished my coffee and lay back. He sat next to me the bank. Hinsied by coffee, His left hand gripped my hard cock and squeezed it, painfully, which caused it to get harder if that was possible. Without any warning, Jerry filled his mouth coffee in his mouth elicited a groan of passion from my lips. Without thinking, I grabbed Jerry's head and started fucking face as he struggled to gulp the coffee down. It wasn't At times I held the engorged head in the pulsating throat. I could not hold off any longer as the cheeks of my ass began their gripping in the final act which discharged spurt after spurt of come into demanding throat. Easing my grip, I allowed the head to rest inside of the mouth while lerry sucked knew that this was not solely due to having my cock sucked.

of apprehension seized my vitals. Would I ever see Jerry again With so many pretty boys outside, would be give me a second glance? Why did he have to leave me? It was aimost as if he guessed what I was thinking. "Don't worry, baby, we'll be back together again."

"I hope so," I sighed. It was probably the first time that I had forgotten to call him sir or Master.

Maybe you should get a job in industries so you can make some money for the streets. The paused and I could see that he was reluctant to bring up the point. "I talked to my boss today and he's willing to give you my job if you want it. All you have to do is go over and see him. You could continue the poker games and make some bread that way.

still think Industries is the best bet.

After we had gone to bed, I couldn't sleep and I thought about the future, Jerry was right about prison. Too many guys had found a home here and I wasn't coming back. Period I got the job the next day and began my own plans for the future. I continued to run the poker games and took my cut of the pot. This cut gave me enough canteen for my own needs. Sure, a lot of guys were hitting me up, but while I was with lerry my body had filled out and no one was dumb enough to The funny thing was that not everyone was after my ass, Some dudes who were considered straight and people never figured they played around were trying to get at my cock be-cause / had a reputation of being a "good con" who knew how to keep his mouth shut. At first I played both top and bottom for cigarettes until the day I met Bob Butler. The gay was tall, blond haired and good looking. His contempt for tags was notorious throughout the prison system. One Friday afternoon the game had broken up and Butter came into the office. The front door of the building was closed and we were all alone. I sat at my desk while he sation the desk's edge 'I'm going to ask you something, Jim, and it has to stay between you and me. If I ever get wind you ever said anything

What was it. I wondered, "Have you ever known me to talk

"Well, what is it?"

"You promise not to say anything?"

"Of course." I said, a tinge of irritation entering my voice "Well. he began, taking a deep breath, "I want to suck your cock." "You're fucking kidding me," I couldn't have been more surprised by his proposition, "I don't know," I slowly con-

Now that he had made the plunge, Butler decided to go tole hog, "Man, I've seen you in the shower and I've seen that beautiful cock of yours and I dream about it at night,

Look, I know you don't do anything for nothing. I don't have much bread and I need it for my canteen, but my sister I leaned back in my chair and contemplated this slender dude and I rubbed my crotch which I knew was driving him

"Man, it'll be in your account next week. I'll have my sister mall it here right away."
"No," I said, "not here. I'll give you the address of a friend of mine and he'll deposit it in my Wells Fargo account.

I reached over and gave him the address of a friend of mine who was a social worker and as naive as they came. I knew that I could rely on him to deposit the money. As I wrote the note, Butler was fumbling with the buttons of my fly and reaching into my shorts to try to get a grip on my hardening cock. After Jerry left I started wearing shorts because I couldn't see any reason getting a report now for not

I unbuckled my belt and let my pants and shorts down and fags should be shot.

His teeth grated on my cock, "Watch those teeth, motherfucker. Just run your tongue around the head, then take the pretty good cocksucker with a little experience. At twenty Slowly, I urged him to take more and more of my cock into his mouth. I didn't want to panic this neophyte by grabbing his head and face fucking him, but I could see that it would could take my cock all the way to my balls. He fought, almost demonically, to free himself since he obviously had not adam's apple some of it got down, but he manged to get away from my hands and he escaped out the door into the yard. I grabbed a rag and wiped off the come that was oozing out. A few moments later he returned. "Man, I'm sorry, but I

The Butler incident made me realize that sex could be pretty profitable even in prison. There was only one modification in the program, as I saw it, the money would have to be paid in advance. As soon as my friend told me that he had received the money, I would make the appointment for a session. My standard rate for a session would be twenty-five dollars. If I was the top it would cost that amount for each time I busted my nuts; if I was the bottom, it would be twenty-five bucks for a blow job and thirty bucks for my ass, If all the dude wanted was to be fist fucked, and I didn't see anyone wanting that, it would be twenty-five bucks.

I put the word out discreetly to some guys I could trust and whom I knew were hot for my body. Jack, the guy who had debt, had been after me to have another session was also apprised. I didn't figure that he'd pay, but somehow he managed to get the bread and he was the first guy I fisted. Jerry had left me his precious supply of amyl and I had used it sparingly. Nevertheless, it was fast becoming in short supply. I knew that I could only replenish it by getting some Bringing up a screw's wife in a conversation is fraught with danger and could land me in the hole, but Sweet merely said that he hadn't had sex with his wife in years. Sure enough the next Friday morning, the obscene pig laid six bottles of the stuff on the edge of my desk as if he were bringing a priceless treasure which it was in Folsom. I looked at the bottles for a moment and scooped them up and shoved them in the side drawer of my desk.

No sense fucking around and being cov, I thought, "What'll

'A blow job," he responded just as tersely

I got up from behind the desk and knelt before this flabby bastard and unzipped his pants. I searched with my fingers for Then I got it. It must have been under two inches in size and had the diameter of a pencil. My gorge rose in my throat and I thought I was going to blow the whole thing by puking. It wasn't the size of the cock, it was the fact that this fat assed having a cock that was really suckable. Without any preface I plunged that grotesquere into my mouth and sucked for all I was worth, hoping to bring it off as soon as possible. My gag reflexes came into play as I tried to keep the vomit from erupting. You wouldn't believe it but that sorry excuse for a man thought that his tiny protuberance was plunging down my throat and that was why I was gagging. It had only one salutary effect, the gagging brought him off quicker. I have never refused to swallow a load of come since I first had sex with Chuck, but as his weak stream of sperm ejeculated into my mouth, I held it there.

He pulled out of my mouth and sought my chair. He looked like he was going to have a coronary right then and there. His face was flushed and sweat beaded his brow. I rushed into the back office and spit the vile tasting goo from my mouth into a waste basket. It was so vile I was sure that it would eat the paint off of the waste basket. When I returned to my office. I could see that Sweet had regained some of his composure. In fact the mother fucker was preening like a twenty year old stud who had shoved his cock into a virgin's

"How was it for you?"
"Oh, just great," I lied. "You're one hell of a man." I stopped at that point, because I knew that if I went any further it would be a repeat offer for another bout, I'd go to the fucking hole before I let that bastard stick his poor excuse for a cock into me again.

Do you know that bastard actually strutted out of the building like a peacock, or rather 1 should have said like a peahen. Well, 1 decided, 1 would not come anywhere near the office on the ways my boss was off unless 1 had someone with me. As events proved, this was unnecessary because Sweet had a massive coronary that afternoon and 1 wonder if our little session was a contributing factor. Shortly after his release from

Now fist fucking is an art. I have never been on the receiving end though God knows Jerry threatened it enough times. Jerry would speak of fist fucking and wax poetic about it, He told me about one night at the Catacombs in San Francisco where he had met a young dude who was pretty famous in town for having one of the tightest assholes as far as a cock was concerned, but this young man could absorb an entire arm up his ass - yes, to the armpit.

One night lerry started playing with the fellow as he lay in a swing. The spinner snapped at lerry's fingers in a playful manner, urging them to explore more of the warm depths, learning to the first thrust. Pulling out to the knackles, he drove his first back in until he strategy and the first thrust. Pulling out to the knackles, he drove his first back in until he stood by lerry in nothing but a studded leather harness, watching lerry work away at the ass, stroking his cock, lerry could see that the guiltfeld roan and he asked the first fluxee if it was all right if the other gay joined him to double first him. The gay we delighted at the length and receded to greach his right arm, all the way to the armptit.

Lerry removed his arm to where the base of his hand appeared to the history of the history

Jerry moved closer to the sling and eased his own cock into the asshole and gripped it with list captured fist. Holding the cock inside of the hold, Jerry began jacking off. The knuckles of his fist brutalized the fuckee's prostate as he whipped his cock in short thrusts. As the tempo increased, the man in the sling tried to escape from the assult, but not too hard. As Jerry began to come, so did his victim; Jerry poured his lost the work of the state of the state of the state of the list would arose that he would never stoo.

After Jerry carefully pulled his cock and hand from the chamber of joy, the dude untangled himself from the sling and kissed Jerry, telling him that it had been the wildest scene he had ever experienced

It was late one Thursday afternoon. I had just finished filing some letters I had typed earlier. Jack, the dude who had owed Jerry a gambling debt, came to the office door and asked if Iwould come outside.

On the steps of the building, he stood with his buddy, Pete, and he looked a bit hesitant, but he managed to ask his question. "You booked up tomorrow?"

"Yeah," I told him. "I've got a bunch of customers in the

"Yeah," I told him. "I've got a bunch of customers in the morning and the poker game is in the afternoon. What's on your mind?"

He seemed unable to get It out, so Pete, a black-haried, well-tanned, muscular dude broke the silence, "Look, man, you don't know me, but I owe you some kind of debt of garitation. Me and Jack have been cellels for a long formation than we both occupied the cell space. He come home one night and, man, was he fucked up in his head. He didn't know whether to shit or go blind. He was all for killing you and repry." He looked over at Jack whose expression didn't tell get it out of him. He tells me you bened him. Well, I figure that some control the sile of the sile of

I questions the asshole some more and I kind of glom on to the fact that it ain't getting his cherry busted that's fucking with his gourd. but the fact that he had to give up the round brown. Well, to make a long story short, this is my punk and I been screwing the shit out of him.

So, what's the problem." I asked.

"Well, I'll shoot a straight stick with you, man, because I know you can keep your mouth shut. You see, I used to be married, but when I come to the joint my ole lady's done left me. I got tired of whipping my dummy, so it started out where this punk started hauling my ashes for me." I could see that

Hoping to help him, I said, "So, you fell in love with him."
"It ain't just that, man, I've copped his joint a few times, even though I ain't let him butt fuck me vet.

"There isn't anything wrong with that."
"Yeah, yeah, I know that. Still and all he's my old lady and

"What's the problem, man?" "I want to fist fuck him, but I'm kind of scared to because I don't want to hurt him. After all the punk's mine so I got to look out for him. You're the only dude in the joint who I know I can go to."

"It'll cost you street money - cash."

"No sweat, man. I've got bread in a bank outside. Money

I hesitated for a moment, but I could tell both of these dudes were hot to try out the fisting. "It'll cost you thirty-

They both looked elated at the idea, "I got a special visit tomorrow and I'll get the money transferred next week, How about next Friday morning?"

"What do we bring," asked Pete.
"Just your bod's, Oh, yeah," I said to Pete. "Cut your nails real short and file the rest of them down. Also, make sure that you wash them real good before you come over. Also, have Jack douche out real clean. I don't care to work in a

"It's a deal." Pete extended his hand and I returned the hard grip.

As I watched them walk off, you would think that I had given both of them a parole the way they were horsing around. The Monday before my date with Pete and Jack's asshole. I made my appearance before the Community Release Board for consideration of parole. Although I was a first time loser and would probably make a parole from another institution; my being in Folsom would tend to add time to my term in prison, Of course, 'hope springs eternal' and I am no different than anyone else. I knew deep in my heart that I wouldn't be paroled, but I could always hope It was a long weekend and I knew that it would be a longer week to come because no one found out the parole results until the following Friday, Monday morning I was scheduled for an appearance about ten o'clock in the administration building. Around 9:30 I headed into the Five Building Gate the end of the cellhouse were three doorways - one into one to the institution hospital and one into the administration building. A guard from inside of the admin building came out with a clipboard and called off about five names, I answered up when he called, "West." We went through the grille door and up a few stairs to two benches which occupied opposite walls inside of another set of locked gates. There were only a couple of guys on the benches. Four panels were operating separately

Usually, when a group of guys are sitting together waiting, like for the hospital line, they'll shoot the breeze or horse This was serious shit. Some of them were sitting there with completely blank minds in almost a comatose state, while others were trying to figure out how to flim flam the board members into a parole, while even those who felt they hadn't a

It wasn't too long before the guard with the clip board called, "James West." Christ, these bastards have never used my full name since I've been here, it was usually my last name or my prison number. I wiped the wet palms of my hands on my levis as the guard unlocked the grille. After he had locked it, he escorted me to the end of the hall and opened a door men sitting behind a long table. One of the men directed me to take a seat opposite him while the other one ignored me as he flipped through my jacket, or institutional file.

"How are you doing, Mr. West."
"Fine, sir." I answered. They had me at a distinct advantage since they knew what was in my jacket and I even didn't

"Do you know why you are here?"

The other man who had not yet looked up, slammed my iacket on the table between himself and his associate, He pulled off his glasses and looked directly at me. His eyes burned into me as he growled. "Are you a goddam fag?"

Both Chuck and Jerry had told me a long time ago that if that question was ever thrown at me in a board hearing to deny it like hell, because to admit that I was gay would prolong my time in prison. I couldn't decide whether the board would have just puked all over me. Maybe, he wasn't sure

In quieter tones, but with a bit of a cutting edge in his voice, the other member interpreted, "Mr. Brown is asking

No, sir," I said with a tinge of vehemence. "You look like a faggot to me. I can tell them, they all look alike. You look like you might be one of them Castro clones, Now, I didn't know what the hell he was talking about - a Castro clone! What the fuck was that? "If you'll look at my jacket, you'll see I was dating girls

"T'ain't no nevermind to that," growled Brown, "I seen too many prison punks in my days The other member picked up my jacket and started to turn the pages.

"Where you planning to go to when you get out, that is if

"San Francisco, sir. That's my home."

Slamming his hand on the table, Brown barked with a smug look on his mug, "San Francisco! Why that's "Fag City, U.S.A." I knew you was a goddam faggot. Get out of my goddam sight before I kick you out. I got up from my chair, realizing that these people weren't had no recourse against them. They knew that if I came over the table at them, the prison officials would beat me simple headed down the hall to the grille

The guard acted surprised to see me back so soon, "That was sure a short one, West." As he started to unlock the gate, the telephone rang and he answered it. All he said was "Yes, sir." A well-trained flunky.

"They want you back," he said to me. As he walked me down the hall, he commented, "They ain't never done that slit his throat or my own. After the door closed behind me again, Brown looked up and smiled. "Sit down, Mr. West," he said in a pleasant voice, Warily I resumed the seat, not sure just what I was in for Brown just grinned at me as his associate began, "We've just re-examined your jacket and we found a 120 report from Mr. Long. As you know Mr. Long transferred to San Quentin as a sergeant. He has written a glowing report about you Leaning forward in his seat, Brown said, "You know I've known Mr, Long since he was a little tyke. His pa and me have been old friends for years. No better Christian men! You cain't fool Long, he's like his pa, he can spot a fag or a phoney a mile away. And like his pa he cain't stand either one of ahem I almost grinned as I remembered Long's fingers rubbing over my naked body while I was hooded in the office and his

The other man took it up. "Well, we prejudged you because we saw that you were living with Charles Lambert who is a notorious aggressive homosexual, a wolf. Under Department of Correction regulations Folsom is where we try to keep all the aggressive homosexuals. We try not to send passive ones here. You can imagine what we thought when we saw you were Lambert's cellmate. I might tell you that he has been discovered in perverted sexual positions with the effeminate homosexuals we have in Vacaville. If it wasn't the fact that he needs extensive therapy, he'd be back here tomorrow."

"Enough of that faggot. We don't want to make this young man sick to his stomach. I'm sure he's seen enough perversion in this prison to disgust him without us talking about it, "Does that mean I am still being considered for parole," I asked, tentatively.

"What do you plan to do when you get out?"
"Well, sir," answering Brown, "I had a few years of college and I wanted to do some accounting.

Do you have a place to stay? "No, sir.

"Do you have any money?"

"Well, besides the money I get from the institution when I'm released, which I believe is one hundred dollars, I have saved up in a bank outside a bit over five thousand dollars."
"Five thousand dollars," exclaimed Brown's associate, "Is that stolen money?' "No, sir," I exclaimed, "I worked my ass off for that money.

"God." exclaimed Brown, "Nothing wrong with working your butt off to better yourself, especially if you enjoy the work." He smiled at me and I was afraid for a minute that he might know what I was alluding to.

was surprised at Brown's next words because I thought that if I had a chance for parole he would want to go into details on my proposed plans, but instead he waid, "Well, thank you, Mr. West. Keep your nose clean and you'll hear

I thanked them in turn and left the room, I was disheartened because if they were going to grant a parole they would have wanted considerably more information The tension of the few moments had been great. I was so angry that they might be denying me a parole on the basis of my possibly being gay that I headed for one cellhouse to

Upon entering the cellhouse, I asked the bull to unlock my door and leave it open so I could shower. I explained that I had just come back from the board hearing. He asked me what I thought my chances were and I said that I didn't know. A new man was in the shower. The guy had come off of fish row the week before. He was tall and muscular with a blonde crew cut, something you didn't see many guys wearing today. I undressed and left my clothing and towel on the

"I'm Jim."
"Oh, I know who you are, man."

I was in no mood to explore the meaning of those words. I sweated out his long cock which he was soaping up in a very Sweater our his long cock which he was soaping up in a very loving manner. Fuck, I thought, I'm not going to be paroled, so I might as well see if this guy plays around. "You want to trick," I asked. "What do you mean?"

"You want your cock sucked or do you want to plug me up my ass? 'Man, you are direct. How much's it going to cost me?"

'Well. I'll tell you." he said as he moved over next to me, "I like to get comfortable when I'm in the saddle so how about some head for now, I shrugged my shoulders, "Wait a minute, I'll get a point man to watch out for the bull."

"You stay where you're at. My cellie is in and we live a couple of cells down. I'll put him out to point for us."

I soaped up a bit as he went around the corner. The water was nice and warm. I played with my own cock, it got as hard as a rock, I knew that if I whipped it a few times I'd come. As the guys came back around the corner I could see that his cock was almost completely hard in anticipation. He stood next to me and reached over and played with my cock. "Don't misunderstand me, I ain't gay, one piece of flesh is like another and if this pleasures you then I want to get you

I pushed his hand away and knelt before him. I licked his wet, hairy balls, nipping the sac which evoked a moan from Willy. "Suck it, baby," he directed, but I was playing it my way. He was neither my master nor a paying customer, so I was going to enjoy myself. He tried to direct the head of his cock toward my mouth but I again knocked his hand away. Looking up at him, I growled, "We do this my way, or we

"O.K., man," "Now, turn around and grab your ankles."

"You got to be kidding. I told you I ain't no queer." "Do as I say, I'm not going to fuck you. I just want to suck on your ass."

"Ain't no one ever done that before," he mumbled as he turned around and bent over

The checks of his ass were taut, but I spread them aside and looked at his pink cluster of flesh. I ran my tongue up and down the crack of his ass, then I centered on his puckered hole. Gently, I licked at the hole. I could feel the hole loosen up as the tip of my tongue teased it. My tongue worked its way into the taut sphincter and by now he was moaning and trying to grind his asshole into my mouth. My tongue darted in and out, swirling around the pucker. My fingers pried the crevice wide allowing more penetration for my tongue. I could sense that he was playing with his cock and I didn't mean to.

Turning him around I took his long, fat cock into my mouth and swallowed it down my throat until I had my face buried in his pubic ha... He grabbed my head and tried to face

'My way or no way,' 'I growled. I knew that I wouldn't be able to prolong the sucking because he was so close to busting, but I planned to enjoy even the short time. I swirl I my tongue around his cock head. Taking only half of his cock into my mouth , I exerted treto lightly abrade the head. His whole body tensed and he let out a half-scream as his come burst into my mouth. I had not been playing with my own cock, but the moment was so fraught with tension that it shot its own load against Willy's leg. I savored the come as if it was a fine wine. You could tell that he hadn't been in prison too long because there was a sweetness to his come, so unlike the acrid taste of long-time

After I finished showering, I went to my cell to catch some sleep. It was not until the next morning that I discovered that I had a new cell partner. I had had the cell to myself since the items I had strewn on the empty top bunk lying on mine. the back of the cell, but there was no sign of my new cellie.

"What's it to you," I retorted in some heat.

I guess he had been expecting me to cop aces and deuces with him, but he certainly hadn't expected a tiger. My adrenalin was pumping fast and furious and after the parole session was ready to mix it up with someone, since I now knew that I wouldn't be paroled.

The guy withdrew a pace and put his hands up in front of him. "Hey, man, I don't want no trouble. I apologize, 'cause what you do ain't none of my business. The rest of the night he stayed on his bunk and I remained on mine, reading. The only time either one of us got up was to use the john. The rest of the week was the same as it had always been work, sleep, eat, shit, read and maybe get a little head, or give up a little. Friday morning, bright and early, an eager duo showed up at the office - Pete and Jack. The three of us stripped down naked. Pete had a fantastic cock as had lack. It's funny but I hadn't remembered Jack's cock from the last session, but, then. I wasn't interested in his endowment

"Did you clean out," I asked Jack.
"Right after breakfast," answered Pete, "I took him back to the shower and shoved that hose they use to wash down the showers and shoved it up his keester and turned on the water. I kept it going until it ran pure and clean.

"Well. let me tell you that the first time may take all morning, because I don't believe in rushing this, especially since it's the first time lack's been fisted

"Yeah, I figure that hole of his has got to be loosened up a lot, I really poured the meat to him last night and this morning. I could see as Pete spoke that his long, fat tool was getting harder and I laughed, "You've got a hell of a wanger there, but it doesn't come anywhere near the circumference of your wrist and arm '

"Why don't we both butt fuck him to loosen him up? "You mean both of us shove our cocks in his ass at the same time?

That's impossible." I showed him how we could lie on the floor and join our cocks together and let Jack squat on them. Pete was really turned on to the idea, so we did it. Where I had expected lack to ease himself down on the two cocks, once he got heads inside of himself, he plunged them into himself. This dude was really turned on by pain and I knew that being fisted would present him with a tremendous high. As a result of this knowledge, I was able to get my hand into him easier although Jack and some amyl sped the process. After I explained to Pete how to do it, he took over. We arranged ourselves during Pete's trial run so I was sucking Pete's cock and Jack was sucking mine. As Pete's knuckles were working on lack's prostate, Pete could tell that Jack was about to come, so he placed his mouth over Jack's cock and caught the bursting spunk, gagging in the process which made me wonder if this

Two very happy gusy left me, I had the poker game that afternoon and a couple of tricks scheduled - one who topped me and one whom I topped.

TOUGH SHIT!

HOLY HOLE!

What kind of people have anal intercourse? Little seems to be written about the subject.

I am married, for the second time, to a Catholic man. He says priests condone anal intercourse for couples as a way of avoiding pregnancy. I say the priest can have it, and him too, if he insists.

I went to a prison program for young offenders, the kind where you are lectured by convicts. They kept talking about how we would be raped the first night we were imprisoned. What happens when a boy is raped?

I have long known that the anal area is eroticized; but at our first attempt at intercourse it was very painful, so we postponed that for a later date. What is the story?

These excerpts, from both men and women, speak for themselves. Tissue in the vicinity of the anus tends to be highly sensitive for most people. For many, the opening itself is eroticized, but for most, anal involvement is limited to digital stimulation.

It is true that some heterosexual couples use anal intercourse to avoid unwanted pregnancy — in the absence of other acceptable contraception. Others pursue the practice because either the man or woman or both enjoy it as an acceptable variation in their sexual lives.

Statistics do not indicate that this practice is limited to any one group; indeed, it seems as common among the upper class and affluent as among the uneducated and poor, the non-religious as well as ent as among the uneducated and poor, the non-religious as well as the religious.

Of all individuals showing up in a physician's office for help in dislodeing an object from the rectum, 90 percent are male, most of them heterosexual. Reportedly only a small percentage of lesbian activity involves centage of lesbian activity involves the anus, but fingers and objects may also be utilized. Approximately 50 percent

Approximately 50 percent (many would argue a much larger proportion) of homosexual males practice penile-anal intercourse — along with many other kinds of stimulation.

In cases ual rape, as in heterosexual rape, as in heterosexual rape, any orifice of the body may be attacked. The mouth and the anus are most commonly the objects of such attacks. I refer to this because rape of any person has little to do with sex per se and much to do with unresolved anear and hatred.

To what extent does anal penetration, as a part of voluntary sexual expression among adults, cause problems such as infections

Often professionals warn about trichomoniasis, if vaginal contact follows anal penetration. To the contrary, it has been confirmed that the colon and the vagina harbor completely different strains of trichomonads, and that thedse parasites do not cross over from one part of the body to the other.

HOLY TROJANS!

Denver — The Federal Drug Administration seized more than 1000 condoms it claims are defective because they are full of holes.

Some of the defective items may already be on the market, an FDA spokesman in Denver said, "but we don't have the manpower to run into every drugstore in the country."

The spokesman said seven cartons of leaky condoms confiscated Monday from a local distributor were apparently part of a shipment of defective contraceptives manufactured by Young Rubber Corp.,

FDA agents in Newark had issued an alert after finding defective condoms during an inspection at the Youngs plant. The FDA said it stepped in after the manufacturer refused to recall the Lubricated

A complaint filed Monday in Denver U.S. District Court claimed the condoms were "misbranded" because "the label statement 'one of the best aids in the prevention of pregnancy and venereal disease' is false and misleading as applied to a product containing holes."

WHAT DID YOU DO ON THE POLICE FORCE, DAD?

Since my wife died several years ago. my son and I have been living together. I'm 36 and a cop; he's now 16, and we've always had a wonderful relationship with each other

About 1 year ago, he found out that I was gay, and into bondage. It took a couple of weeks of relative silence, and I wasn't sure how he was going to adjust, Then we went on a camping trip and got around to talking about it. He didn't seem to understand what was so exciting him if he wanted

Reluctantly he said okay, so we started off with some bondage and discipline. I hardly had the ropes tied before he had a roaring hard-on. He spent the rest of the night spreadeagled - and I gave him a pretty rough going over. We each exploded 4 times Since then, our relationship is better than ever, and he keeps coming back for more, We lift every other day, and jog 3 or 4 times a week. He spends almost every night in my handcuffs, and our sessions are becoming more and more involved. And we're both regular readers of Drummer - the greatest mag, of its kind on the market. Well, I'd better get him down - he's been suspended in the attic for 36 hours - cuffed to a ceiling beam, ankles tied to hooks in the floor, a heavy weight sus-pended from his balls, a come-soaked jock as a gag - and I'm sure he's about ready for another jolt from the telephone

Keen up the good work A proud father and a pleased S.

TOE-BURGERS

I love you but right now I feel like twisting your balls with a heavy chain, have not delivered yet.

I love sweaty smelly huge feet on a well built hunk of a man. I have a lean (BB) tight 6', 170 lbs. body and know how to use it. My fat cock is my own and I only use it to fuck a face or an ass when they are super or when they beg for it properly. Otherwise I like to put my fist up a tight ass while sucking on big moist sour-smelling toes. I also groove on crawling into a bed where a hunk is sleeping with his wet socks on. I slowly smell and taste the socks, take them off, come over his big feet and lick my own man-juice mixed with his sweat.

ACT NOW - I want to hear about other men who share my taste for FEET!

Check out Drummer No. 29, Dummy.

SPEAK FOR YOURSELF, JACK!

Jack, you're off base when you call all bar guys "male impersonators" and it's about time someone set you straight. This is 1979. Maybe 20 years ago a guy like myself would not of come out but I am old now. Yeah a real live hard hat construction man out in the N.Y. gay jungle. If you think it's bullshit look for me some night in the Mineshaft or better yet, search the rising towers of Jersey. You'll have me and damn it I men a break. When you call us all middle class fags you might get a big surprise some day and meet a REAL man which from the sound of your mag's editorials you are really in need of one.

THE HEAVY HORNIES

Your magazine is by all odds the sexiest, wildest, heman magazine pub-lished anywhere in the USA. I have written to several guys who advertised in DRUMMER and have never been disappointed. As an ex-Marine, I dig real men. And all of your guys are exactly that all men. Red hot sexy animals in hed just like me, where anything and every thing goes, from spunk to sweat to piss and to shit. That is real livin', man!

I clipped out the picture that I am en-closing in this note. Why? Because that is exactly the way I want my cock and balls to be bound and tortured. Christ. what heaven! If you have any ideas about who would be willing and able and eager to do this for my basket, I sure would like to know, Oh sure, I sound like a nut. But I really ain't a nut, I'm just a super horny

I get so hot when I read your hot magazine. In one issue a few months ago. some guy asked you when you were going to write a story on how to get your rocks You said at that time you were going to do this soon in one of your coming issues. I have not seen it vet. I hope you print this soon. I just can't believe one can get his rocks off by just tit work. I went two weeks without i/o so I would be really hot. Then I played with my tits, put clothespins on them, put shaving cream on them, and I could not get off. I would like to know how this is done. Please don't use my name, Thank you.

BOXING BUFF

I've just gotten through reading "Golden Gloves" in Drummer 29, and I have a hardon like you wouldn't believe! It reminded me of how much the leather fraternity needs boxing stories, both fiction and non-fiction, in your magazine. It also reminded me that boxing is just as much an S and M activity as wrestling is. Boxing is the ultimate conquerorm submit, macho sport. It evokes memories of when men used the sport of boxing as an honorable and noble means of displaying their masculinity,

Several gay magazines are already doing articles on boxing in clubs around the country, like the "Mineshaft," in New York. I hope in the future your mag will Vork. I hope in the future your mag will like in issue 29, because there has already been an overemphasis on westlers in Drummer. I'm sure there is an equal percentage of your readers that wouldn't you will be the proposed of the proposed headgear, and shorts or longoams, "mising it up" in a risk or longoams, "mising it up" in a risk or longoams, "mis-

How about it, men? What could be more "macho" than boxing?! And how about letting your readers in on specific clubs (gay, of course) that feature boxing, around the country.

M.A.A. Las Vegas, NV

Any takers? — Ed. BIG CHUNKS WITH PITS

I'm writing you about two subjects that you fail to give any real attention to and they are:

A. The descriptions of the various kinds of odors that are emitted from the body.

B. Pictures showing nude men together smelling each other's armpits with their faces buried in the hairy pits of the upraised arms such as when they are wrestling, making love or an S&M scene.

2. WRESTLING

A. Decent physique types such as the super-heavy weight types that range from a minimum of 300 lbs, to 700 lbs, and up, such as the McGuire twins who are 700 lbs, plus and are in the Guiness Book of World Records as being the world's strongest twins. Antonio the Great —world's strongest twins. Antonio the Great—world's strongest man — 64", 600 lbs. Others include: Haystacks Calhoun, Crusher Blackwell, Dusty Rhodes, Man Mountain Mike, Gorilla Monsoon, etc.

These are all well known westlers who are physical types that make them worthy to be called real men — not the cadaverous, skinny, ugly, scrawny zombies you depict from cover to cover, has the word of the cover to cover

So if you call your mag a real meny mag you will include the powerful fat types along with the others just to make a comparison between the superior and the inletor it yees you know what I renaul the interference of the interference will be the property of the property

So if you're ballsy enough to publish the stuff you do then you should print this letter so your readers can make up their own minds as to what should be in your mag. So how about it? Are you gutsy enough? So get on with it – unless you're too chicken shit to try out the only winning formula for a successful
